Girls Build 2016

Houston County Habitat for Humanity Girls Build – Kick-off June 18, 2016

Thousands of girls across the United States are joining together to address the need for affordable housing with Habitat for Humanity.

The Girls Build program of Habitat for Humanity provides learning opportunities for girls, in partnership with youth organizations, designed to educate on homes, homeownership, Habitat for Humanity, community needs and the ways in which girls and women can actively meet those needs.

HoCo Habitat has fun projects this year you don't want to miss!

- Empowerment Workshop with five modules: Homes and Neighborhoods, Building Homes, Home Buying Basics, Habitat for Humanity and Giving Back. The program provides and includes games, crossword puzzles and other activities to make learning fun and informative.
- Assist in Landscaping the Habitat Houses!
- Decorate Birdhouses and Plant Butterfly Gardens in local parks!
- Lowe's Workshops. Learn fun, new techniques from the pros!
- Build Friendships while giving back to your community!
- Fun Social Events: Picnic lunches, Ice-cream socials, etc!
